

East of England Cardiovascular Disease Prevention Webinar

Organised by PHE East of England

Tuesday, 21st November 2017
12:00 – 13:15 hrs

You are invited to attend this webinar on CVD prevention in the East of England, which will highlight examples of prevention activities in practice and their implementation.

Who should attend?

System leaders from health and care providers and commissioners in the East of England

- NHS colleagues
- CCG colleagues
- Local Authority colleagues
- STP colleagues

Agenda

- 12:00 – 12:05 Welcome & Introductions
Dr Simon How, Health and Well-Being Programme Leader
- 12:05 – 12:35 National overview of CVD prevention including local examples such as Bradford Healthy Hearts
Dr Matt Kearney, National Clinical Director for Cardiovascular Disease Prevention, NHS England, and National Clinical Advisory, Public Health England
- 12:35 – 12:50 A local approach to implementing NICE CG 180 – Atrial fibrillation
Mr Adrian Tomlinson, Prescribing Support Pharmacist, Solihull CCG;
Mrs Kate Arnold, Head of Medicines, Solihull CCG
- 12:50 – 13:05 Blood Pressure Self-Management in the Waiting Room
Dr Neil Macey, GP, Stowhealth Suffolk
- 13:05 – 13:15 Final questions and closing remarks

The webinar will be a Skype meeting. For those unable to join via Skype, there is an alternative phone number that can be used to join. Slide sets will be sent to participants in advance of the meeting.

If you have not yet done so, please contact Victoria Wells at Victoria.wells@phe.gov.uk to book your place and to receive joining instructions for the webinar: please indicate whether you will join via Skype or telephone.