

Domestic Abuse Conference

This conference will mark 25 November - White Ribbon Day and the United Nations International Day of Elimination Violence Against Women, which starts 16 Days of Action to 10 December - Human Rights Day.

~~~~~

Thursday 22 November 2018

09.00 - 14.30

Large Hall, Guildhall, Cambridge CB2 3NH

09.00-09.30      Registration

Welcome and Opening of Conference

09.30-09.35      Antoinette Jackson, Chief Executive, Cambridge City Council

Introduction

09.35-09.40      Councillor Anna Smith, Deputy Leader / Executive Councillor for Communities, Cambridge City Council

Guest speakers:

09.40-10.05      Introduction to Cambridge City Council White Ribbon Ambassadors
Adam Ratcliffe, Manager of Cambridge Business Against Crime (CAMBAC) / Co-ordinator Pub Watch / Cambridge City Co-ordinator Ask For Angela Campaign
Ben Szreter, Chief Executive Officer, Cambridge United Community Trust
Dave Doggett, Chair of Abbey People / Former Chairman Cambridge United Football Club
Shapour Meftah, Business Founder and Owner / Former Cambridge City Councillor
Russ McPherson, Security Manager, Cambridge Regional College

|              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10.05-10.10  | David Greening , Head of Housing, Cambridge City Council                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 10.10-10.35  | Domestic Abuse Housing Alliance (DAHA)Sharon Crosby , Development ManagerCaroline Mackechnie-Jarvis , Service Manager Corona House,Cambridge Housing Society                                                                           |
| 10.35-11.05  | Local Support ServicesAngie Stewart , Chief Executive Officer, Cambridge Women's AidNorah Al-Ani , Director, Cambridge Rape Crisis CentreStef Martinsen-Barker , Chief Executive Officer, Cambridge Women'sResources Centre |
| 11.05-11.20  | Comfort break – As this is a free conference,please note that refreshments are not provided                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 11.20-11.35  | Adam Moghadas , Lawyer, Cambridge Law Practice / Cambridge &West Suffolk Resolution / White Ribbon Ambassador                                                                                                                                                |
| 11.35-12.05  | Dan MiddletonDetective Inspector, Public Protection, Cambridgeshire Constabulary                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 12.05-12.15  | Questions and Answers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 12.15-13.00  | BREAK - Please note that as this is a free conference that:lunch/refreshments are NOT provided. Water will be available.                                                                                                                                     |
| 13:00--14.20 | The Invidious Nature of Coercive ControlLuke HartFollowed by Questions, Answers and Discussion                                                                                                                                             |
| 14.20-14.30  | Councillor Nicky Massey , Lead Councillor on Community Safety,Cambridge City Council - Closing remarks                                                                                                                                                       |
| 14:30        | Close                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

~~~~~