

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AND SYSTEM TRANSFORMATION WEBINAR PROGRAMME: Amend Oct 19 – Dec 19

Date & Time	Webinar Name	Presenter	Aimed at:	Webinar Overview	Register
22 Oct 14:30 15:30	Voluntary, community and social enterprise sector partnerships in integrated care systems	Primary Care – System Transformation Team, NHS England & NHS Improvement.	The webinar is for colleagues in the NHS, local authority and VCSE and statutory partners	The NHS Long Term Plan highlights the significant role of the voluntary, community and social enterprise (VCSE) sector as strategic partners in system transformation. In the webinar we will present the draft practical advice and support being developed through the work of the VCSE and STP/ICS learning network. We will consider the potential impact of strengthening VCSE partnerships in ICSs and share examples of emerging good practice.	Register for this webinar
23 Oct 10:00 11:00	Support for Primary Care Networks (PCNs) to work in partnership with people and communities'	Claire Parker, Senior Strategic HR and Workforce Lead NHSE / NHSI, and the Public Participation Team, NHSE / NHSI.	People involved in PCNs, STPs and ICS.	The NHSE/NHSI Public Participation team are hosting a webinar on support for PCNs to work in partnership with people and communities. This webinar will explore the opportunities to work with local VCSE organisations and look at the 'social prescribing and community development' module. Join us via the web link provided.	https://healthsector.webex.com/healthsector/j.php?MTID=m80ed5a4fe06f9dd360c91e83bd634dd9
23 Oct 11:30 13:00	Engaging BME Communities	Tony Kelly with Gaynor Walker & Nurjahan Ali Arobi NHSE / NHSI	Colleagues interested in approaches to engage BME communities	A webinar about engaging Black, Caribbean, South Asian people on diabetes, representing their views on diabetes and being a Lay Member.	Register
28 Oct 12:00 13:00	How to Develop a Webinar	Rosie Ayub Jonathan Leahy Public Participation Team, NHSE / NHSI	Anyone who would like to develop a webinar or make them more interactive and engaging	This webinar will focus on how to set up a webinar which is interactive, informative and engaging. and Jonathon will share tips about the format and content of webinars and how to use some of the basic tools to register, manage participants and record the webinar.	Register

30 Oct 10:00 11:00	Preparing for Public Consultation	Paul Parsons – the Consolation Institute	NHS and local authority partners involved in public engagement, involvement and consultation and want to refresh/increase their knowledge in when to consult.	Paul will provide participants with theory, practice and case studies from systems' experiences of engagement, involvement and formal consultation, drawing on the expertise of the Consultation Institute.	https://healthsector.webex.com/healthsector/j.php?MTID=m1a4f3beaaf6ba773b8f80b30f97d6fc6
5 Nov 10:00 11:30	Introducing the NHS Cadets	Jim Smith, Voluntary Partnerships Team, NHS England and NHS Improvement Danielle Sharp – St John Ambulance Interim Programme Manager for NHS Cadets	Colleagues working for Health Providers and those interested in the Cadets partnership and want to be a world leader in youth led volunteering within health.	The Cadets partnership webinar aims to inform the Health and Social Care system about the Cadets programme outlining our intentions, aims and ambitions. There will also be an opportunity for Health Providers on the webinar to register interest in the programme. Find out how youth social action and volunteering can support your organisation; be part of a ground-breaking programme, which aims to recruit, train and support 10,000 young people into volunteering.	Register
12 Nov 10:00 11:00	Introduction to Public Engagement	Nurjahan Ali Arobi Public Participation Team, NHSE / NHSI,	NHS colleagues who work with partners and volunteers	Learn why engaging with patients and the public is important across health and care. Understand more about patient and public engagement, legal duties of participation and some approaches to use.	Register
12 Nov 12:30 13:30	Involving people and communities: how integrated care systems (ICSs) are involving people	Kate Duxbury – Ipsos - MORI Frances Newell, Head of Engagement, Primary Care & System	Colleagues involved in the development of their integrated care system. It will be of particular interest to system leaders and VCSE leaders.	Kate Duxbury will present findings from this research (Commissioned by NHS England) which aims to build understanding of the opportunities and challenges of system - level working and engaging people and communities, including the voluntary, community and social enterprise sector (VCSE) sector. The webinar will help to share learning and	Register and communities in their plans to integrate health and care services	Transformation NHSE/I		support the development of emerging good practice and inform principles for aspiring ICSs.

19 Nov 11:00 12:00	How to Develop a Webinar	Rosie Ayub Jonathan Leahy Public Participation Team, NHSE / NHSI	Anyone who would like to develop a webinar or make them more interactive and engaging	This webinar will focus on how to set up a webinar which is interactive, informative and engaging. and Jonathon will share tips about the format and content of webinars and how to use some of the basic tools to register, manage participants and record the webinar.	Register
21 Nov 10:00 11:30	National Public Participation / Engagement Support for National & Regional NHS Colleagues	Thomas Chalk Public Participation Team, NHS England and NHS Improvement	Engagement / Participation & Communication colleagues working in national & regional NHS structures and STPs/ICSs	An interactive webinar providing information about the tools, resources and support that is available from the NHS England National Public Participation team to support colleagues in the work they do in relation to patient and public participation.	Register
3 Dec 10:00 11:00	Best practice in on-line Consultation	Paul Parsons – the Consolation Institute	NHS and local authority partners involved in public engagement, involvement and consultation wishing to develop their on-line presences	Paul will provide participants with tips and examples which will be relevant when using on-line consultation as part of your stakeholder engagement efforts, in support of reconfiguration. Sharing examples from systems who are/have developed this approach	https://healthsector.webex.com/healthsector/j.php?MTID=mafe7916aead15b977161dbcde46a1726
10 Dec 10:00 11:30	National Public Participation / Engagement Support for National &	Thomas Chalk Public Participation Team, NHS England and NHS Improvement	Engagement / Participation & Communication colleagues working in national & regional	An interactive webinar providing information about the tools, resources and support that is available from the NHS England National Public Participation team to support colleagues in the work they do in relation to patient and public participation.	Register

	Regional NHS Colleagues		NHS structures and STPs/ICSs
12 Dec 11:30 12:30	Resources to support major service change	Frances Newell, head of engagement, NHSE/I	NHS colleagues who are advising on or planning and implementing engagement and consultation on major service change.	Frances will share resources that have been developed and builds on the earlier webinars around preparing for consultation and best practice in on-line consultation. Participants can draw on the experience and good practice of areas that have done this before.	Register