

20. Referral to Specialist Urogenital Pain Management Unit

There may be access to a specialist urogenital pain management unit. If so, they will:

- have multidisciplinary and multispecialty teams with proven experience in managing urogenital pain
- see larger numbers of complex patients with chronic pelvic pain
- have access to complex pain interventions and assessments

Referral will often be in conjunction with or on the advice from local pain management centre.